

Sudan Heart Society, Pan African Society of Cardiology, World Heart Federation African Summit and World Society of Hypertension Joint Conference, January 2018

Khartoum Friendship Conference Hall for the first time four international conferences held under the auspices of Sudan Heart Society.

Opening ceremony

The conference was opened by Vice President of Sudan Bakri Hassan Saleh and was attended by delegates from most African countries. Among those who attended was Professor Bangoni Mayosi President of PASCAR, President of the World Heart Federation and President of the World Hypertension Society and the president of the Egyptian Society of Cardiology.. Among the attendants were Professor Salem Yousif and Professor Karen Sliwa.

Professor David Wood president of the World Heart Federation and Professor Neil Poulter president of the World Hypertension Society